

HARPER ADAMS UNIVERSITY
Remuneration Committee

A

- C Discretionary performance payment of 1% of salary
- D No discretionary payment (national salary award only)

A submission under category D (a single sentence indicating this and a signature) will be required if applicants do not wish to apply for a discretionary performance payment. This will ensure that all applicants have been given the chance to submit a case for a payment and that the University has a record of their decision. There is no contractual right to an increase in salary or to a performance payment.

will, however, determine in the case of discretionary performance payments:

- i)
(Permanent Award)
- ii) Whether a performance payment should be made as a one-off performance award in which case payment can be made as a lump-sum if requested by the applicant. Such circumstances might include, for example, temporary responsibilities that have been undertaken at an exceptional level of performance but are not expected to be part of the longer-term responsibilities of the post
- iii) Whether a performance payment paid in the previous year should be consolidated in the current application period (Consolidated performance award)

The usual approach of the Committee has been to take into account the known or likely national salary (cost of living) award and to then consider whether any discretionary increase above this figure is by independent members as a reserved business item normally considered annually at the Spring
