The Committee also conducted a review of its effectiveness further it its meeting held in July 2023 and concluded that the Committee continued to work effectively. Feedback from the questionnaires confirmed that members continue to agree that the Committee's processes and procedures work effectively and efficiently. The Committee also agreed to monitor the effectiveness of the new procedures for senior staff pay reviews in light of the new CUC HR Remuneration Code and refreshed procedures and documents.

The Board completed its review at its July 2023 meeting and concluded that it was content with the work of the Committee during the year and had no issues it wished to raise save that increased diversity in the membership of the Committee would be beneficial when possible.
